Reports from the Far North by Returning Miners.

Actual Starvation is Threatened-Reports of Pienty at Fort Yukon Not Credited "God-Knows How I Am to Keep Body and Soul Together."

SKAGUAY, Alaska, Dec. 17, via Seattle, Wash., Dec. 27 .- John Lindsay, of Olympia, Wash., who has just arrived from Dawson City, says there will surely be starvation there this winter. He examined into the food situation in a thorough manner, he says, and after satisfying himself that there would be starvation, he sold his outfit, and in company with Frank Ballaine, of Olympia, Wash.; Tom Story, of Victoria, B. C., and Bob Glynn, of Seat tle, started out on foot, each man drawing a sled, carrying about 146 pounds of provision. Lindsay says the Dawson people believe that there is no great amount of food at Fort Yukon, as has been alleged. The river rose sufficiently and remained open long enough to enable food supplies to have been taken from Fort Yukon had there been any there.

The people of Dawson, believing that there were not ample food supplies at Fort Yukon, refused to go there, preferring to remain in Dawson. No more than 300 or 400 people took advantage of the transportation companies' offer to take the people to Fort Yukon free of charge.
